About the Artist:

Jenny Briggs paints simply for the love of painting. Her works include a wide variety of styles and subject matter. Jenny loves to experiment with new styles, techniques, or subjects, and thrives on the challenge of something she hasn't tried before. FOR THE LOVE OF IT is a collection of her most recent paintings, for your enjoyment.

Artist Statement:

I'm challenged by something I've not tried before, or something I don't know how to do yet. I've started leaning toward making paintings that tell a story, sometimes my own story, and sometimes another's – paintings that remind the viewer of good times or bring back a fond memory.

I don't paint for money or fame. I paint because I love it! I love nature, pretty things, Mom and apple pie. My work is my lifestyle; it is part of who I am. I am an artist.
